

2024 Autumn Workshop 06 December 2024

Financial Intermediation Network of European Studies (FINEST) workshops are small meetings with an in-depth discussion (from top scholars) of a limited number of high-quality papers to foster discussion among academics, policymakers, and practitioners about the evolving challenges facing financial intermediaries and markets. In the 2024 Autumn workshop, we expect to accept up to six full papers for presentation and three early idea proposals.

We invite submission of papers (or research proposals for the early idea session) in all areas related to financial intermediation, including bank risk-taking, regulation, supervision, financial stability, ownership structure and governance issues, market structure and competition, FinTech, and with a focus on sustainable finance and policy changes.

Keynote Speaker: Iftexhar Hasan (Fordham University).

Discussants: Angela Maddaloni (European Central Bank), David Marqués-Ibáñez (European Central Bank), Sergio Mayordomo (Bank of Spain), Enrico Onali (University of Exeter).

Organizing Committee: Josanco Floreani (University of Udine), Francesco Saverio Stentella Lopes (University of Roma 3), Stefano Miani (University of Udine), Maurizio Polato (University of Udine), Enrico Geretto (University of Udine), Enrica Bolognesi (University of Udine), Federico Beltrame (University of Udine), Giulio Velliscig (University of Udine), Egidio Palmieri (University of Udine), and Giulia Scardozzi (Università Internazionale di Roma).

Venue: University of Udine, Sala Florio, Palazzo Florio, Via Palladio 8, Udine, Italy.

Fees: There are no submission and attendance fees.
